- Occasional travel within the region is required.
- Travel, transportation, and relocation expenses will not be paid by the agency. Any travel, transportation, and relocation associated with reporting for duty in this position will be the responsibility of the selected candidate.

Major Duties:

This position is located in a Regional Office of the Office of the General Counsel (OGC) of the Federal Labor Relations Authority (FLRA). The incumbent of this position is at an intermediate level of the Labor Management Relations Examiner career ladder.

The incumbent of this position is responsible for performing all functions related to: the investigation and resolution of unfair labor practice cases; the investigation and resolution of representation cases; and the facilitation, intervention, training and education activities provided to the parties. The incumbent is responsible for handling moderately difficult representation, unfair labor practice, and compliance cases from filing through final disposition.

The Incumbent works under the supervision of the Regional Attorney or Deputy Regional Director, who supervises and reviews work in terms of the ability to effectively balance the quality, quantity, and timeliness of the work assigned. Assignments are normally reviewed with the incumbent, and the incumbent regularly consults with supervisor on the status of work assigned. The incumbent also receives guidance from the Senior Litigation Specialist, the Senior Representation Specialist and the Senior Dispute Resolution Specialist in their respective areas of expertise. The incumbent is expected to accomplish most assignments with minimal supervision.

Qualifications Required:

Applicants must possess qualifications listed below under Education or Experience or a combination of both. A complete explanation of qualification requirements can be found on the web at <http://www.opm.gov/qualifications/SEC-IV/B/GS0200/0244.HTM>.

Time-In-Grade restrictions must be met by the closing date of the announcement

Education

Applicants must possess a Ph.D. or equivalent doctoral degree; or 3 full years of progressively higher level graduate education leading to such a degree; or LL.M.

Undergraduate and Graduate Education: Major study--labor relations, industrial relations, personnel administration, business administration, economics, labor economics, labor law, political science, accounting, or law; or other education that included or was supplemented by at least 24 semester hours in these subjects.

Experience

For the GS-11 level: Applicants must possess one year of specialized experience equivalent to the GS-9 level.

Specialized experience must have been gained in the following types of work:

1. Labor economics, labor relations, or collective bargaining in commerce, industry, and/or government.

Examples include:

- Government representative in contractor industrial relations work, involving the administration of applicable labor laws and serving as liaison between the contracting agency, management, and labor on labor relations matters.
- Management representative responsible for the execution of labor relations programs sponsored by management, or of agreements between management and labor organizations involving labor relations programs.
- Labor union representative in connection with matters concerning relationships between management and labor, e.g., representing labor in the negotiation and preparation of collective bargaining agreements, or in the interpretation and application of collective bargaining agreements.
- Advisor or consultant on labor-management relations and collective bargaining.
- Mediator or arbitrator in the field of labor-management relations.
- College-level teacher in the field of labor-management relations or labor economics.
- Investigator conducting investigations or research related to labor matters, labor economics, or labor-management relations matters for labor unions, newspapers, journals, foundations, commercial or industrial enterprises, or Federal, State, or municipal agencies.

2. Labor law.

Examples include:

- College-level teacher in the field of labor law.
- Practicing labor lawyer.

Knowledge, Skills, and Abilities (KSA's):

You must address each of the KSAs listed below in writing, as an attachment to your application. When describing your knowledge, skills, and abilities, please give examples and explain how often you used these skills, the complexity of the knowledge you possess, the level of the people you interacted with, the sensitivity of the issues you handled, etc.

1. Knowledge of Federal sector case law and procedures in unfair labor practice and representation case handling.
2. Ability to analyze facts, perform necessary legal research, draw conclusions, and devise practical solutions to complex problems.
3. Skill in written communication and oral presentation of facts, issues, and conclusions. (You must submit one writing sample, preferably reflecting labor/employment-related laws and regulations or administrative law and regulations).
4. Ability to organize workload effectively.

5. Ability to establish and maintain effective working relationships.

Failure to respond to the above listed KSAs in writing, as an attachment to your application, will result in your application being considered incomplete and excluded from further consideration.

Application Rating Process:

Those applicants who meet qualification requirements will be further evaluated by determining the extent to which their work or related experience, education, training, awards outside activities and/or supervisory appraisal, etc., indicate they possess the knowledge, skills and abilities (KSA's) of the position. You will not receive credit for merely paraphrasing the KSA's on your application. The information you provide will be used to determine the "best qualified" candidates. The applications of the highest ranked candidates will be sent to the selecting official for selection consideration.

How To Apply For This Position:

Special Remarks:

- This is a Bargaining Unit position
- Identification of promotion potential in this position does not constitute a commitment or an obligation on the part of management to promote the employee(s) selected at some future date. Promotion will depend upon administrative approval and the continuing need for an actual assignment and performance of higher level duties.
- Please submit completed OPM Form 1386B, Applicant Race and National Origin Questionnaire with your resume. (This is optional and not a requirement.)
- Receipt of application will not be acknowledged, however, candidates will be notified of the outcome of their consideration upon completion of the selection process.
- Employees who received a buyout and subsequently return to positions in Federal agencies, whether by re-employment of contracts for person services, are generally obligated to repay the full amount of the buyout to the agency that paid it.
- If you are applying for a position and you are a person with a disability and need reasonable accommodation for any part of the application or hiring process, please notify the Agency at 202-218-7979. The decision whether to grant reasonable accommodation will be made on a case-by-case basis. Proof of eligibility for special consideration is required.
- Qualified applicants will receive consideration without regard to such non-merit factors as race, color, religion, gender, handicap, age, sexual orientation, national origin, political affiliation, marital status, non-disqualifying disabilities, membership or non-membership in an employee organization, personal favoritism, protected genetic information, or status as a parent.

- Before being hired, you will be required to sign and certify the accuracy of the information in your application if you have not previously done so, using an application form such as the OF-612.
- If you make a false statement in any part of your application, you may not be hired; you may be fired after you begin work; or you may be subject to fine, imprisonment, or other disciplinary action.
- Privacy Act Notice (PL93-579): The information requested here is used to determine qualifications for employment and is authorized under Title 5 U.S.C. 3302 and 3361.

Agency Mission:

The Federal Labor Relations Authority (FLRA) is an independent administrative federal agency created by Title VII of the Civil Service Reform Act of 1978 (also known as the Federal Service Labor-Management Relations Statute) (the Statute), Public Law 95-454, 5 U.S.C. § 7101 et seq. The Statute allows certain non-postal federal employees to organize, bargain collectively, and to participate through labor organizations of their choice in decisions affecting their working lives. The Statute defines and lists the rights of employees, labor organizations, and agencies so as to reflect the public interest demand for the highest standards of employee performance and the efficient accomplishment of the operations of the Government. Specifically, the Statute requires that its provisions “should be interpreted in a manner consistent with the requirement of an effective and efficient Government.”

The FLRA does not initiate cases. All proceedings before the FLRA originate from filings arising through the affirmative actions of Federal employees, Federal agencies, or Federal labor organizations. The FLRA organizational structure includes: the Authority, the Office of the General Counsel, and the Federal Service Impasses Panel. For additional FLRA information, please visit our website at: www.flra.gov.

Employee Programs and Benefits:

Depending upon the position, the FLRA offers a variety of benefits, including flexible work schedules; opportunities to attend skills enhancing and skills-maintenance training; and monetary and non-monetary awards. An employee assistance program provides confidential, professional counseling and referral service to help troubled employees, a health service which provides periodic health screening opportunities at nominal cost, and a leave donation program that can assist employees during personal medical emergencies. All employees are paid by electronic funds deposit.

The FLRA subsidizes health benefits and life insurance costs. Its portable Federal Employees Retirement System permits eligible employees to supplement their retirement by contributing to a Thrift Savings Plan (similar to 401K savings plans). Employees on appointments of more than 90 days with set work schedules earn annual and sick leave based on their years of service, beginning at 104 hours each of annual and sick leave per year for a full time employee. The FLRA recognizes the Union of Authority Employees as the exclusive representative of all full-time and regular part-time FLRA employees excluding management officials, supervisors, confidential employees, administrative law judges, and employees engaged in personnel work in other than a purely clerical capacity.
